

NZ Sculpture OnShore 2008
Diary Note

NZ Sculpture OnShore 2008 begins with a Gala Opening on the evening of November 6 and then every day until November 16. Fort Takapuna Historic Reserve in Devonport, which looks out over the Hauraki Gulf, is again the exceptional site for the outdoor sculpture exhibition. Curator Rob Garrett has selected over 100 New Zealand artists offering both new works by emerging talent to significant pieces from leading sculptors. All sculptures are for sale and raise funds for Women's Refuges in New Zealand. Open from 10 – 6 each day, admission: $10 adult, $8 senior citizens, $5 children 5 – 12, family pass $25. There is also an indoor Sculpture Gallery and a cafe.
